Why Should You Invest in the Flex Savings Plan?

* If you have a team that needs training at different times or in different subject areas you can still purchase at a group rate by investing in this plan
* If you have a training budget that is about to expire you can preserve your funds for 18 months and take the time to determine what training you really need
* If you oversee your organization's entire training program you can invest at the beginning of your year, ensuring you maximize your spending ability through the exclusive discounts offered
* If you don't want to directly manage your training funds, you can leverage this plan to let us manage the budget and enroll students as you need us to
