STATE GOVERNMENT ENTITY SERVICES

EXPERIENCE MATTERS

State governments must continually be aware of transparency and compliance regulations while providing accurate and timely financial information to everyone from government officials to citizens. Often you are faced with these challenges while fewer resources are at hand. The Brown Edwards Government Group understands your budgetary constraints and the regulatory environment within which you operate. We have over 25 years of experience conducting state-level and component unit audits along with the associated challenges which make them unique. Our experience allows us to give ongoing assistance beyond the required audit report. We also develop strong relationships with our clients and interact with management and other decision makers throughout the year, conducting on-site visits, phone calls, webinars, or through attendance of sponsored events, conferences, and other professional networking forums.

"The expertise and guidance from the staff of Brown Edwards has been invaluable to us over the years. They maintain contact with management throughout the auditing process, are flexible with scheduling and the audits are always conducted professionally, efficiently, and timely. Their staff is well versed on current mandates and they keep us informed of the constantly changing GASB's. They are always available to respond to any questions we may have throughout the year and offer viable solutions for our governmental agency. "
