TAXATION SERVICES

EXPERIENCE MATTERS

We are committed to providing our clients with their necessary tax compliance services at a competitive fee. We view tax compliance as the necessary result of our first responsibility—attentive tax planning. A growing enterprise faces a multitude of business decisions, and tax considerations are an important facet in these choices.

Brown Edwards has identified several potential areas of compliance and planning concerns. Our tax professionals will be available to address these issues on any level of requested assistance.

Brown Edwards' tax professionals represent a rare strength of talent and professionalism unmatched by other local accounting firms. Our partners and senior staff pride themselves on being well informed of opportunities that can reduce our clients' tax liabilities. They understand the details of current tax law and keep up to date with the complexity of the tax system, all to ensure the timely and accurate preparation of tax returns for our clients. Our professionals, in addition to the well-known individual, partnership, and corporate income tax returns, also offer their expertise in the preparation of trust, estate, and gift tax returns.
