FREEPORT HARBOR COMMUNITY GATHERS TOGETHER FOR AN HOUR OF REFLECTION

Freeport (June 10th, 2020) - On Tuesday June 9th between the hours of 12 and 1 p.m. the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) and the United States Maritime Alliance, Ltd. (USMX) from ports along the East and Gulf Coast, joined together in a peaceful hour of reflection coinciding with Houston native, George Floyd's memorial service. Port Freeport, Texas Port Ministry (TPM), and the local ILA, gathered together in reverence to share thoughts and prayers for Mr. George Floyd's family and the nation grieving beside them. Port Freeport strives to maintain strong relationships with its partners and the diverse workforce at the Port and supports peaceful, unified change for the betterment of the state, the nation, and the rest of the world.
