4. Will your personal data be transferred outside of the European Economic Area?

If you are an EU resident, as far as possible, your personal data will be processed within the European Economic Area (EEA) by employees of Mirakl in EEA. However, notably for the organization of the US Event, and as some of other companies of the Mirakl group, as well as our services providers being located outside of the EEA, your personal information may therefore be processed in those countries.

When your personal data are transferred outside the EEA, Mirakl will, in the absence of an adequacy decision and after having carried out an assessment of the level of protection of your rights on the territory of the third country where the recipient of your personal data is established, implement all necessary measures through the adoption of appropriate safeguards (such as standard contractual clauses).

5. How does Mirakl protect your personal data?

Mirakl has implemented technical and organizational measures in order to protect your personal data, in particular against potential data breaches likely to cause, either by accident or unlawfully, the destruction, loss, modification, unauthorized access or divulcation of your personal data. These measures will guarantee a level of security adapted to the data and will take into account the state of the art and the cost of implementation in relation to the risks and nature of the data to be protected.

Mirakl uses SSL certificates to encrypt the Website and only a limited number of staff have access to the data.

Mirakl guarantees that all members of its personnel and any other person processing your personal data will respect the internal rules and procedures related to the processing of personal data, including the technical and organizational security measures put in place to protect your personal data. In this context, Mirakl reviews and updates its practices regularly to enhance your privacy and ensure that its internal policies are followed.

If you have found a vulnerability or would like to report a security incident, you may send an email to security@mirakl.com.

6. For how long are your personal data stored?

As a general rule, your personal data will only be retained for the period necessary for the accomplishment of the purposes for which said data was collected, or as necessary to fulfill legal or regulatory obligations.

In the absence of applicable exceptions:

- the data collected via the collection forms on the Website (contact request, request regarding your ticket, etc.) will be kept until the complete processing of your request;
- the data collected for your subscription to the Events will be kept until the end of the Events;
- the data collected from the speakers will be kept until 2023 events are advertised by Mirakl;
- your traffic data will be kept for a period of thirteen (13) months from the connection date.

In addition to this, Mirakl will keep your personal data for:

- three (3) years for data processed for marketing purposes;
- five (5) years for evidence purposes relating to legal claims;
- ten (10) years from the end of the relevant fiscal year for personal data retained for accounting purposes as well as for commercial documents.

7. What are your rights regarding your personal data?

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data:

- you can request the access to your personal data in order to obtain clear, transparent and understandable information on how Mirakl processes your personal data and on your rights (as provided in this policy), as well as a copy of your personal data.
- you can request the rectification of your personal data in order to obtain the modification of your personal data if they are obsolete, inaccurate or incomplete;
- you can object to the processing of your personal data when the processing is based on Mirakl's legitimate interest. Mirakl will no longer process your personal data unless Mirakl demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms, such as the respect of a legal obligation (e.g. legal obligation involving the retention of documents), or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

- you can request the restriction of the processing during a limited period of time, in particular in order to carry out some verifications, where one of the following applies:
 - you contest the accuracy of your personal data, the processing of which is thus restricted for the period necessary for Mirakl to verify the accuracy of such personal data;
 - the processing is unlawful and, rather than requesting their deletion, you prefer to restrict their use;
 - Mirakl no longer needs your personal data for the purposes of the processing, but you need them for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims;
 - you have objected to the processing, which is thus restricted pending the verification of whether the compelling legitimate grounds of Mirakl may override your interests, rights and freedoms.
- you can withdraw your consent when it has been obtained, without this withdrawal affecting the lawfulness of the processing operations previously carried out.
- you can ask to receive your personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and also can request their transmission to another controller where technically feasible. This right is not exercised in all circumstances, it applies only if it fulfils all the following conditions:
 - your request is only related to your personal data (excluding anonymous or third party data);
 - your request does not adversely affect the rights or freedoms of others, in particular those of Mirakl (including trade secrets or intellectual property);
 - the processing is carried out by automated means (paper files are therefore not included);
 - the processing is based on consent or the performance of a contract (to check if it is the case, you can see the article 2 of this policy).
- you can request the deletion of your personal data (or right to be forgotten), where one of the following legal grounds applies:
 - you object to the processing of your personal data and there are no overriding legitimate reasons justifying to maintain the processing of your personal data (such as an obligation for Mirakl to keep certain personal data);
 - you object to marketing activities;
 - you decide to withdraw your consent on which the processing is based;
 - your personal data are no longer useful for the original purposes for which they were collected or for any other type of processing;
 - the use that is made of your data does not comply with the applicable legal or regulatory provisions.
- If you reside in California, once we receive and confirm your verifiable consumer request, we will delete (and direct our service providers to delete) your personal information from our records, unless an exception applies.
- If you reside in France, you can define either general or specific guidelines regarding your personal data in the event of your death (for example, their deletion or transmission to any person of your choice). You may revoke your instructions at any time.

Under certain circumstances, Mirakl may ask you for specific information in order to confirm your identity and ensure the exercise of your rights. This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to an individual who does not have the right to receive it.

If you have any questions or wish to exercise your rights, you may directly contact Mirakl by sending an email to privacy@mirakl.com.

If needed, you may also lodge a complaint with your national data protection authority. This right may be exercised at any time and free of charge, at the exclusion of potential postal fees or expenses related to legal representation or assistance should you choose to engage third party assistance for the procedure.

8. Sale of personal information

Mirakl does not sell your personal information.

9. Changes to this policy & contact

This privacy policy may be amended from time to time, in particular to reflect the changes in the services provided by the Website or the applicable regulations. Therefore, we recommend you review this privacy policy each time you visit the Website.

Should you have any questions, you may directly contact Mirakl by sending an email to privacy@mirakl.com.
