

San Diego, California (January 11, 2022) –
Chandler Asset Management reinforces its investment management department with the promotion of three Co-Chief Investment Officers (CIOs).

Chandler Asset Management, Inc. is pleased to announce that William Dennehy II, CFA, Scott Prickett, CTP, and Jayson Schmitt, CFA have been promoted to Co-Chief Investment Officers (Co-CIOs). Martin Cassell, CFA, CEO has transitioned all CIO responsibilities to the three new Co-CIOs as of January 1, 2022. Marty continues to serve in his daily responsibilities as the Chief Executive Officer of Chandler Asset Management. “Naming Bill, Scott and Jayson Co-CIOs represents a successful step in the succession planning process,” said Martin Cassell, CFA. “With their vast collective experience, they will bring long-term leadership to the investment team.”

“Bill, Scott, and Jayson will continue in their roles as senior members of the firm’s management team and the executive management committee. They have been influential in enhancing the investment management process, and we are pleased to welcome Bill, Scott, and Jayson to their expanded roles at the Company. They all have strong track records at Chandler Asset Management and are well suited to the investment team,” said Nicole Dragoo, President.

Bill is a member of the Executive Committee and co-chairs both the Economic and Market Analysis Committee and the Credit Committee. Bill has been with Chandler since 2011 and works with Chandler clients to implement portfolio strategies and securities trading. Of particular emphasis during his time at Chandler has been his collaboration with clients to expand their investment mandates. His efforts have helped to identify more creative and robust investment strategy solutions to meet client goals.
