Hand Burned by Pot Handle

When it comes to burns, almost no one is immune to the pain that can be suffered when these types of preventable injuries occur. According to the American Burn Association (ABA), more than 500,000 people in the United States and Canada receive medical treatment for burn injuries each year. The Cause Map[™] diagram below demonstrates how a 3-Why can break out into a more detailed 12-Why to reveal additional solution options to prevent a burn.
