Child Care - 312020101

The Armed Services YMCA provides an after school program at Overhills Elementary School and South Harnett Elementary designed to help children grow socially through building relationships with others and giving them an opportunity to have fun and be a kid! Students at Anderson Creek Primary may register for South Harnett Elementary After School Care. Please coordinate transportation with Anderson Creek Primary as they will bus students to South Harnett Elementary. The ASYMCA is not responsible for transportation.

This child care program is offered Monday - Friday, 3:00pm to 6:00pm onsite at Overhills and South Harnett Elementary (there is no child care on all non-student days) . There is a flat fee of $55 per week. Once you have registered your child online, you will receive an email with the required Registration Packet attached. This packet contains all of the paperwork required for your child(ren) to attend the ASYMCA After School Child Care program. These forms can be printed, completed, scanned and email back to us or you may drop them off at the ASYMCA office before your child's first day of After School Care.

For questions please contact Carrie Benick, Program Director, or Nicole Piechowski, Program Coordinator, at the Armed Services YMCA Fort Bragg 910-436-0500.
