

COVID-19 Solidarity Fund

EHL Group has created a solidarity fund of CHF 1mio to ensure that talented students whose financial capabilities have been directly impacted by the Covid-19 crisis can continue to pursue their studies at EHL. Financial support is provided as interest-free loans, to be reimbursed after completion of the studies.

Loans are made available to cover all or part of the cost of education and can come in addition to other scholarship support. The amounts and the duration of the loan are flexible according to each individual situation.

The solidarity fund also applies to EHL SSTH students at EHL Campus Passugg.
