

B-eye Solutions and Agium EPM unite to form AMCO Solutions

Stronger Together.

AMCO Solutions brings a powerful mix of CPM and ERP experts across the world, offering a more comprehensive suite of solutions and services for the office of the CFO.

August 24th, 2021

Agium EPM, the Netherlands and B-eye Solutions, Denmark are announcing today, the merger of the two organizations. Two OneStream Diamond Partners and established consultancies within the Corporate Performance Management (CPM) and Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) space are merging.

Effective today, the merged company will operate under the new name: AMCO Solutions (AMCO).

Pascal Walk (former Agium EPM Managing Partner) and Jesper Kamstrup (former B-eye Solutions Group CEO), have been named joint CEOs of AMCO Solutions.

Jesper Kamstrup: "We have long respected and admired the work of Agium EPM. Working together on more than 10 projects since 2018, we have learned how similar our culture and strategic focus is. It will give us the opportunity to create a bigger and stronger foundation for our highly skilled team to unfold their potential and drive. It is our combined fantastic group of colleagues, skills, knowledge, and experience that will strengthen our offer to our customers. We are simply stronger together!"

AMCO operates in 11 locations in three continents with more than 110 professionals and has a global track record of 175+ projects and over 120 customers across different industries. With the merger, AMCO's 15 years of solution expertise will allow its employees to support more customers across the full lifecycle of their CPM and ERP applications – from implementation and training, through to on-going managed services and development of point solutions.

New combined footprint of AMCO Solutions

Pascal Walk: "We are thrilled to merge with B-eye Solutions to give new meaning and quality to the way we work. This is an incredible time to strengthen our organizations, offer greater value to our customers, and create more work opportunities for our amazing colleagues. AMCO's global footprint and international teams, enable us to serve customers globally and we are very excited about our journey ahead. With our amazing colleagues and partners, we can serve our customer even better: we truly are stronger together."

B-eye Solutions and Agium EPM were among the first in Europe to enter into a partnership with OneStream Software LLC, a leading CPM software firm with headquarters in Michigan, USA, and jointly have delivered successful projects since 2013.

Today, they are two of the largest and most experienced OneStream Diamond partners world-wide with leading positions in EMEA and APAC, making AMCO the largest OneStream Diamond partner in these regions. Two OneStream Diamond Partners become one, with compelling offerings on OneStream, as well as our usual Microsoft Dynamics 365 and Oracle Hyperion managed services.

"We are thrilled to see two of our largest global Diamond Partners join in an alliance that strengthens how we serve OneStream clients worldwide, with a dedicated focus across EMEA and APAC," said Tom Shea, CEO at OneStream Software. "Their implementation expertise and proven track record are integral to our customers' success. We look forward to partnering with AMCO Solutions to help clients streamline financial operations to enable better business decisions."

"This partnership is great news for OneStream clients as AMCO Solutions will help serve a broad array of client needs across EMEA and APAC," said Craig Colby, President at OneStream Software. "It's exciting to see two of our dedicated partners align to better serve customers. Together, AMCO Solutions and OneStream will help clients conquer the complexity of financial processes to drive 100% customer success by unifying key financial processes and turning data into actionable insights."
