

Family Listening

Listen to a story as a family, together or independently

- Strengthens relationships
- Sparks conversation
- Encourages interaction between generations
- Builds structure for open communication
- Screen-free entertainment for all

Story Train

Each community member chooses a story incorporating a common theme or building upon a theme from the previous book

- Encourages critical listening and reading
- Improves comprehension
- Provides engagement opportunities for readers of all levels

Audiobooks are for

EVERYONE!

Out of the box

ideas for Tales2go!

Tales2go

Virtual Book Club

Listen to a story with far-away friends or family to stay connected and always have something to talk about on video calls

- Provides shared experiences
- Eases monotony of regular video calls
- Encourages interaction from all
- Closes the distance between loved ones

Community Listen Alongs

One School, One Book, but bigger get your whole community involved

- Invite older generations to listen along or read to younger readers
- Ask community members to share their personal stories, experiences, or skills
- Host story-themed show and tell sessions

