F&G Life Internal Sales Team

The F&G Life Sales Team is pleased to announce an enhanced resource now available to support your growing IUL business - the F&G Life Internal Sales Team!

Your primary resource for all product information, illustration support and training will continue to be your marketing organization. Please reach out to your upline for all training and our Internal Sales team is here to provide additional support, as needed.

Our new Life Internal Sales Team is comprised of highly-experienced internal wholesalers to provide you with assistance in case design and advanced product knowledge.

These individuals offer many years of specialized sales experience working with IUL products and supporting independent agents. The Internal Sales team is led by Emily Scanlon, who has been with F&G for approximately six years.
