PD&R Updates Online Magazine, The Edge

HUD's Office of Policy Development and Research (PD&R) has published some updates to its online magazine, The Edge. One of the updates highlights a 130-unit development in Denver, Colorado, which combines affordable workforce housing, permanent supportive housing, and a 60-bed homeless shelter on a single property. In another update, PD&R features an interactive report titled "Exploring a Universal Housing Voucher," published by researchers from the University of Pennsylvania's Housing Initiative at Penn \(HIP\) in September 2021. The authors discuss who would benefit from such a program, where such outcomes would be felt geographically, and potential barriers to implementation. For other updates, including a message from PD&R leadership on HUD's latest biennial Worst Case Housing Needs Report to Congress, visit The Edge home page.
