PD&R Opens Competition for Secretary's Award

HUD's Office of Policy Development and Research (PD&R) has posted a "call for entries" for the 2022 Secretary's Award for Public-Philanthropic Partnerships – Housing and Community Development in Action. The application deadline for the award, which emphasizes partnerships between the philanthropic and public sectors, is March 28, 2022.

The award, sponsored by HUD in partnership with the Council on Foundations, recognizes excellence in partnerships that have both transformed the relationships between the sectors and led to measurable benefits in terms of increased economic employment, health, safety, education, disaster resilience, inclusivity and cultural opportunities, and/or housing access for low and moderate-income families.

Examples of desired nominations may include projects affiliated with housing and neighborhood improvements, education, health and recreation, transportation, community participation, arts and culture, safety, disaster response, innovative regional approaches, and economic development.
