

May 4, 2021

GENERAL NEWS

HUD Announces Webinar on Preventing Shortfall During COVID-19

The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has announced that it will be hosting the latest in its series of training webinars titled "PHA Best Practices During COVID-19." The series provides PHAs with best practices, recommendations, and solutions related to improving operations, program compliance, and financial management during the COVID-19 pandemic. As such, the webinars are relevant for PHA staff at all levels of the Housing Choice Voucher and Public Housing programs, including property management, inspections, housing specialist, and program management staff.

The latest scheduled webinar, titled "Preventing Shortfall," will explore causes of financial shortfall, especially those that may be unique or more prevalent during the COVID-19 pandemic. During the session, participants will:

- Learn how CARES Act funding can assist PHAs with financial shortfall issues
- Be able to identify causes of and solutions to financial shortfall
- Learn about available tools to prevent financial shortfall
- Learn the importance of quality control and data for financial reporting

The webinar is scheduled for Thursday, May 20, 2021, from 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. Eastern time. Click here for more information, including instructions on how to register.

For help with your PIH Alert subscription, email Laurie Durrett. For questions and comments on content, email Olga Vélez. To view or post job announcements at our website, click here. To view our seminar calendar, click here. To read the NMA blog, click here.

Nan McKay & Associates, 1810 Gillespie Way, Suite 202, El Cajon, CA 92020, USA, 1-800-783-3100

Unsubscribe Manage preferences