HUD Announces Forum on the Impact of the Eviction Moratorium

On the HUD Exchange News webpage, HUD announced that the National Fair Housing Training Academy (NFHTA) and the National Fair Housing Alliance (NFHA) will be hosting a national fair housing forum focusing on the impact of the eviction moratorium during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The forum, titled "On the Brink: The Looming Eviction Crisis of the COVID-19 Pandemic," will contain information about housing assistance programs that may help prevent eviction, specify how eviction could be a fair housing violation, and provide resources and tools that fair housing practitioners, attorneys, and housing counselors can utilize to combat evictions that violate the Fair Housing Act.

The webinar will take place on Wednesday, June 16, 2021, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time. Click here to register.
