HUD Announces Latest in ConnectHome Webinar Series

The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has announced that it will be hosting the latest in its series of training webinars on the ConnectHome initiative. The webinar series is meant to serve as guidance to help ConnectHome participating communities achieve their goals in connecting households to broadband and assisting communities in their digital inclusion and digital literacy efforts. As such, the series is relevant for PHA staff and community members responsible for ConnectHome program implementation.

The latest scheduled webinar, titled "PCs for People and Roxboro Housing Authority," will discuss the partnership between the Roxboro Housing Authority and PCs for People—a nonprofit providing affordable refurbished computer devices to low-income families, housing authorities, schools, and other nonprofits. The webinar will also discuss how PCs for People can partner with other ConnectHomeUSA communities across the U.S. to support computer distribution events, housing authority bulk rate shipping offers, and local career development and internship programs in their five locations.

The webinar is scheduled for Tuesday, July 21, 2020, from 2:00–3:00 p.m. Eastern time. Click here for more information, including instructions on how to register.
