All the Right Possibilities

“Despite the widespread adoption of public cloud models as the centerpiece of many organizations’ IT strategies, the need for private infrastructure in key locations across the world has not diminished. Equinix Metal has enabled the “connectivity gap” between the infrastructure and important ecosystems to be bridged on a turnkey, pay-as-you-use model that has eluded the market up to now. Deploying Equinix Metal allows companies like Vissensa to offer a greater diversity of services to a global audience.”

SAMUEL NUNN

CHIEF COMMERCIAL OFFICER
VISSENSA

“It is critical that we have the infrastructure in place to support the needs of our customers as well as our company’s rapid growth. With its ease of adoption and scalability, Equinix Metal allows our infrastructure to not only keep up with the increasing demand for our eCommerce software, but also provide lower technology-related costs.”
