SEARCHING

Can't find it? Something missing? Instructions not clear? Email manuals@affinityconsulting.com.

Searching Across Teams

The Command box, located in the top center, allows you to search throughout Teams.

Note: As of the time of publication, Wikis are not searchable.

Search for People

To search for messages from a particular person, type that person's name in the Command box. Clicking on the person's name under People will open an individual chat with them (as well as any one-on-one chat history).

If you are engaged in any group chats with that person, the group chats will show up by name under Group chats. If a group chat was not named, you'll see a list of group chat participants.

To see all communication (including messages in channels), hit the Enter key on your keyboard to open the search results page. Chat messages and messages posted in channels that you have access to are listed under the Messages tab. Contacts are listed under the People tab. Files are listed under the Files tab.

Search for Teams and Channels

To search for a team or channel, type the team or channel name in the Command box.
