

Speak their language with Trint Translation

Manual transcription is painful enough, add in a ton of foreign language content and it's near impossible. Projects grind to a halt, teams are overburdened and budgets are stretched to cover external translators. Break down the language barriers with Trint Translation.

1. Get the gist

Armed with a working draft, teams can instantly understand the gist of the foreign language content. Now you can navigate the transcript, find key moments and pull quotes - simultaneously.

2. Create the perfect translation

Multilingual team members can now create perfect translations in one place, combining the playback of the original audio with the rough translation.

3. Instant subtitles

Boost the reach of your video content in different languages and markets with subtitles. Export from Trint into multiple subtitle formats such as .srt and .vtt file formats.
