Faster multilingual video editing with Trint Translation

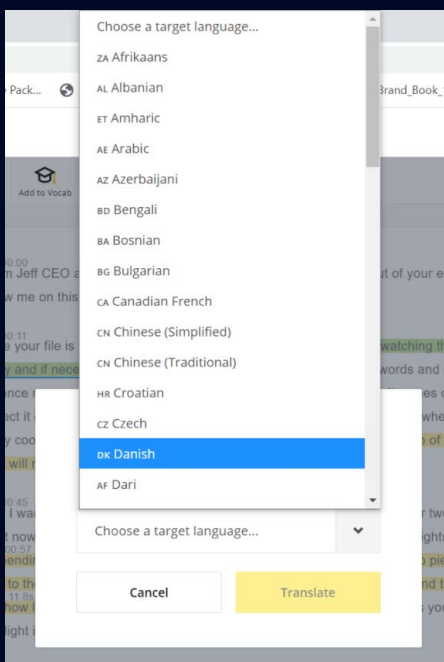

Today's video marketing is all about viral videos and making your content go further. The more people that see your videos, the greater the exposure.

Speak to your audience, whatever their language with pre-translated subtitles and transcripts. Get to the final cut faster and speed up editing with Trint Translation.

1. Unlost in translation

Instantly transcribe and translate your videos into all the languages your audience speak.

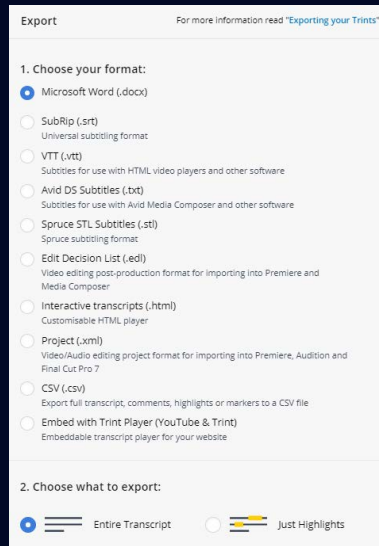

- Understand the gist of what was said with pre-translated subtitles so production can start sooner
- Once perfected, export subtitles to SRT and VTT
- No more waiting on human translations

2. Say goodbye to painful processes

Ready-made subtitles and pre-translated transcripts make video editing simple and easy.
