

How content writers benefit from automated transcription

We're consuming content faster than ever. Today's content writers face huge pressure to produce more content in less time.

Keep up with demands with speedy transcripts and automated workflows.

1. Tell your customers' stories

- Capture your customers' experience to easily produce slick stories,
- Review exactly what was said for a deeper understanding
- Quickly pull key quotes

2. Repurpose content

- Repurpose keystone content for blogs and social media
- Share raw recordings and transcripts with marketing teams
- Create a content repository for teams to quickly find previous content

3. Serialize your content

- Create valuable content from your virtual events
- Serialize your transcripts to create more content
- Quickly turn around new assets to increase distribution
