trint

All your key moments. One Story.

We're all consuming more and more content, and creating more than ever to keep up with demand. Up your content creation and save a ton of time with Trint.

Pull together all your key quotes from multiple transcripts into one place. Then easily move into onward workflows, including direct to audio and video software. Now you can script, organize and tell your Story, faster.

See it, hear it, create it. All in Trint.

1. Assemble your Story

- Highlight key moments and soundbites from multiple Trints
- See all your important quotes in one place
- Drag and drop your content into place to set the order

2. Refine it

- Play it back to get a feel for the narrative
- Start scripting directly in your Story
- Add comments and notes to share with audiovisual editors and other creatives

3. Move it forward

- Grab time-coded selects fast
- Export into post-production formats like EDL and XML
- Quickly create sequenced clips in programs like Adobe, Avid and Final Cut
