

Notice to members - Change of Australian Financial Services (“AFS”) Licence number

On 21 June 2019, GigSuper Pty Ltd (ACN 620 862 053) (“GigSuper”) was appointed an Authorised Representative of Grow Super AFSL Pty Ltd (ACN 135 540 135) (“Grow Super”), the holder of Australian Financial Services (“AFS”) Licence number 340958.

This meant that GigSuper was entitled to provide certain financial services to retail and wholesale clients.

GigSuper has resolved to change licensees and as such, effective 14 May 2020, it became an Authorised Representative of APP Financial Advisers Pty. Ltd. (ACN 132 958 591) (“APP Financial Advisers”), the holder of AFS Licence number 412302.

GigSuper will continue to provide the same high-quality financial services to its clients, albeit under a different licensee.

Other than reading GigSuper’s new Financial Services Guide, there is nothing further that our clients need to do.

Please contact us via support@gigsuper.com.au should you have any further queries.

To your success,

The GigSuper team
