

Claudia Ratay

Some of My Favorite Resources for Teaching English Language Learners

1. English Page
This is my absolute favorite resource for verb tenses. It includes very helpful time-action diagrams.
www.englishpage.com
2. ISL Collective Worksheets galore!
en.islcollective.com
3. ESL Printables
Another great source of worksheets.
www.eslprintables.com
4. All Things Grammar
Well-prepared worksheets on just about any grammar topic.
<https://www.allthingsgrammar.com>
5. University of Victoria
Reading comprehension with audio and questions aimed at intermediate and advanced learners.
continuingstudies.uvic.ca/elc/studyzone
6. Reading Skills for Today's Adults
Reading comprehension for beginners through intermediate learners with audio at multiple speeds, vocabulary lists, and questions.
www.readingskills4today.com
7. English Listening Lesson Library Online
Idiom dialogues for beginners and intermediate speakers with audio and questions.
www.elllo.org
8. Idiom Connection
An exhaustive list of idioms with definitions, examples, and quizzes.
<https://www.idiomconnection.com>
9. Rachel's English
Website and YouTube channel include useful pronunciation resources.
<https://rachelsenglish.com>
10. English Club
Includes minimal pair pronunciation lists as well as many other resources.
<https://www.englishclub.com>
<https://www.englishclub.com/pronunciation/minimal-pairs.htm>
11. Pronuncian.com – American English Pronunciation
Diagrams of mouth, audio, sample words and other resources related to pronunciation.
<https://pronuncian.com>
12. englisch-hilfen.de
The most extensive list of irregular verbs I have found.
https://www.englisch-hilfen.de/en/grammar/unreg_verben.htm