

Privacy notice

Visitors to our website

Visitors to our website are generally in control of the personal data shared with us. We may capture limited personal data automatically via the use of cookies (necessary cookies). These cookies cannot be switched off as they are needed to improve your user experience.

In addition, only with your consent, we may capture additional personal data through the use of cookies. Please refer to our cookie statement for more information on the use of cookies and how to manage your preferences.

Visitors are able to send an email to us through the website. By completing the contact form, we process personal data such as first name, surname, e-mail address and company name. We collect this information based on your consent and will only use this information in order to respond to your request. This information will be retained for as long as is needed to process and respond to your request.

If you subscribe to our newsletters via the website, we ask for your first name, surname and e-mail address. We collect this information based on your consent and only use this information to send you newsletters. You can unsubscribe from our newsletters at any time.