Joyce Cummings Center

A Venue of Distinction

Tufts University is known worldwide as a distinctive institution of higher education. Whether through our liberal arts education or our thought-leading research, Tufts is a leader in academics. Our mission to be distinctive carries forth in all we do, including providing the University community and our guests with meeting and event venues that provide the utmost in professional atmospheres and services to make every gathering a success.

In January 2022, Tufts will unveil our newest venue of distinction. Meet the Joyce Cummings Center, a centerpiece for education, engagement, and incredible meetings and events.

Access is Everything

In today's hyper-tasking world, convenient access to anything and everything is crucial. Your meeting and event location is no exception.

The new Joyce Cummings Center sits in the center of Tufts University's Medford/Somerville campus. Just a few short minutes from downtown Boston and Logan International Airport, the Joyce Cummings Center sits adjacent to the new MBTA Green Line subway station aptly named, Tufts.

The Joyce Cummings Center also provides easy access to all of the services and amenities that you and your attendees will need.

- Nearby Hotel Partners – Let our team do the work for you and negotiate your rates
- Shopping, dining and entertainment await at Assembly Row, just minutes from Tufts
- Hip and vibrant neighborhoods like Davis Square and Cambridge offering culture, technology and nightlife

A Transformative Place

The Joyce Cummings Center provides more than a beautiful backdrop for a successful event. Throughout the Center, our guests will experience spaces designed for truly transformative learning and thought development. From intentional space design to contemporary technology, we've created a place where collaboration and creativity can thrive.
