DESCRIPTION

Archive Seeds Rudeboi OG hybrid makes for the a very uncommon fragrance that is supremely satisfying. Difficult to describe, it's those "old school" dank hashy kushy low notes of both parents that gets amplified 10 fold in the crossbreed and makes for the of the most inexplicably delightful and refreshing smoke. RudeBoi OG produces potently sublime, relaxing effects that envelope both mind and body.

PARENT #1: Irene OG

Hybrid

Breeder: Rudeboi/Grohard

Lineage: OG Kush (suspected)

Irene OG is a sour-scented hybrid strain that is said to have originated in the United States' Deep South. Its genetics are a mystery to most, but rumor has it that Irene OG descended from California's OG Kush. Hints of its heritage are found in its earthy pine aroma, but this hybrid has a distinctive diesel smell that deviates from the typical OG flavor.

PARENT #2: Face/Off OG BX1

Indica-Dominant

Breeder: Archive Seeds

Lineage: (Unknown x Face Off OG Kush) x Face Off OG Kush

Face Off OG is an indica-dominant hybrid bred by Archive Seed Bank through crossing Face Off OG #4 with Face Off OG Bx1. This strain possesses a spicy hash flavor accentuated with sweet herbal notes and offers relaxing cerebral effects marked by heavy body sedation, making it a great choice for nighttime use.
