The Gift that Keeps on Giving!

Did you notice our early holiday gift back in August? It was our new and improved website! The benefits are endless including:

- Ability to sync with your e-procurement and EDI systems
- Selectors and configurators allowing you to select the right products 24/7/365
- Your individual account is synced with your company's account, allowing you to see your company negotiated pricing and shipping times
- A redesigned "My Account" that lets you control your shipping, billing, payment, account status and order history
- Easier to use product search functions
- And More!

Have you created your account yet? Visit the website today to get started!
