

Samuel Kurian

A Senior leadership practitioner with over 25 years experience, Sam has had business operations and HR/OD lead roles in various multi-national companies including banking, hospitality and FMCG, starting with the Procter & Gamble company, US. Samuel's track record expands widely and includes implementation at group, regional and country level including project work track record in the US, China, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Singapore and Malaysia.

Samuel is an experienced executive and leadership coach for interventions for C-Suite and middle Management levels of large and medium size organisations. He is a member of the Institute of Coaching - Harvard Medical School (IOC, UK). He is an adjunct faculty and executive coach with The ICLIF Leadership and Governance Centre, an international Asia-focused centre of excellence committed to delivering practical and relevant leadership based in Kuala Lumpur. He is the current ICF Malaysia Charter Chapter President (2016 – 2018).

Education and Certifications

- Masters in Business Administration, Kent State University
- Diploma in Workplace and Business Coaching (Open Door Coaching - Australia)
- Certificate IV in Workplace and Business Coaching (Open Door Coaching – Australia)
- Professional Certified Coach (International Coach Federation, US)
- Certified EQ Coach Practitioner (Six Seconds, US)
- Certified Certified Behavioural Consultant (IML, US)
- Servile Wave Accredited – British Psychological Society (BPS) Level 2
- Talent Q Psychometric Certified
- Member of the Asia Pacific Alliances of Coaches (APAC)
- Certified Master Reina Trust Assessment Practitioner, Reina Trust Building Inc. USA