Leicester - a vibrant and diverse city

Culturally diverse and welcoming, Leicester is a vibrant, student-friendly city. Based in the East Midlands, it's an equal distance from both Manchester and London. The city offers great nightlife, culture and shopping. Its arcades are like mini shopping centres that connect the high street to the cobbled streets of The Lanes and Leicester Market. The city's Golden Mile is famous for jewellery stores and seasonal lights celebrating Diwali and Christmas.

Discover Leicester

At Queens Court we are...

Leicester has a great choice of independent coffee spots and restaurants, including some of the country's best curry houses. Live music is a big part of the city's heritage, with no fewer than nine venues for everyone to enjoy. For art, head to the New Walk Museums and the Attenborough Arts Centre. The National Space Centre includes six interactive galleries and the UK's largest planetarium, housed in an iconic 42m high Rocket Tower.

Want to see for yourself? Book a viewing

Taking a look around the property and seeing where you'll be living is a great way to get a sense of what the day-to-day experience will be like.

We recommend arranging a viewing to check out our show flat: you can choose to attend in person or virtually over video call (e.g. Skype, Zoom or FaceTime), whichever option is the most convenient for you.

Whatever you decide, you'll get to meet our team, ask questions and have your own personal tour of the property – it's so much better than a photo!

We look forward to welcoming you!

I stayed here last year when studying graphic design at DMU. Queens Court was right next to campus making it extremely easy to access (plus meaning more time in bed!). Site staff were helpful with my sister as she made a booking to stay this year.
