

Odds are your government health insurance does not cover all the medical, dental or other health-care costs you might face throughout your life. A health insurance plan can help protect your family, your income and your savings from unexpected health-care expenses.

As a contract employee, self-employed or independent contractor, you may want to consider GSC HealthAssist benefits program brought to you by Agilus Work Solutions.

FAQs

- What is and isn't covered by provincial health plans?

Under the federal Canada Health Act, provincial and territorial governments must provide residents with basic medical and emergency services. This often includes: visits to doctors and specialists, and basic hospital costs for medically necessary procedures. However, There are a number of common types of treatments and services that aren't covered at all by provincial healthcare. Or, in some cases, these treatments may only receive a small amount of coverage.

- How much does coverage cost?

The cost of health insurance will vary depending on your specific needs. You can get a quote in a few simple steps by clicking on this link and answering a few questions.

- How quickly can I get coverage?

With some GSC HealthAssist plans, coverage is guaranteed and no medical form is needed so coverage can start as soon as your plan is effective.

- Can this be paid directly from my paycheck?

No, we do not offer this capability. You will need to provide your banking information to GSC for automatic payment withdrawals.

- Can I submit my expenses electronically or can you pay my healthcare provider directly?

Many claims will be direct billed at source so that you are not out of pocket. For those services where you do have to pay, you can submit either online or from GSC's mobile app and get reimbursed directly to your bank account.

- What if I leave my current employer or my contract ends and I am no longer working with Agilus?

Your benefits plan is with GSC HealthAssist, so as long as your monthly premiums are paid on time you can continue to enjoy the benefits of HealthAssist regardless of where you are working. Your plan and coverage is portable with you throughout your life.
