1.0 PURPOSE:

- 1.1 The purpose of this policy is to assist NEW Water and its Commission in designating, monitoring, and managing the Interceptor Cost Recovery (ICR) Reserve maintained by NEW Water for ICR renewal and replacement of interceptors, and future projects related to interceptors of NEW Water.

2.0 SCOPE:

- 2.1 This policy applies to NEW Water's ICR Reserve.

3.0 PROGRAM AUTHORITY: (Not Used)

4.0 POLICY:

- 4.1 The ICR Reserve will maintain a minimum amount in principal of not less than $5 million for payments related to the renewal and replacement of interceptors, future projects, and related services for interceptors of NEW Water.
- 4.2 NEW Water will establish the annual budgetary use of the ICR Reserve, in conjunction with its long-term capital improvement plan, for the utilization of designated amounts of interest and principal proceeds of the ICR Reserve related to renewal and replacement of interceptors, and future projects related to interceptors of NEW Water.
- 4.3 NEW Water will apply investment principal interest proceeds proportionately to the ICR Reserve as established by the NEW Water Investment Interest Use Policy. NEW Water shall establish the principal amount for the ICR Reserve during the budget approval process for the following year.
- 4.4 NEW Water will establish annual and long-term ICR Reserve needs related to renewal, replacement, and services of interceptors and future projects related to interceptors of NEW Water. NEW Water will replenish the ICR Reserve through customer interceptor capacity allocation payments, interest accumulation on the principal, and through the annual budget.

4.5 NEW Water will have discretion to use such interest and/or principal proceeds for the capital needs associated with the ICR Reserve, subject to alternative use of the ICR Reserve, as designated by the Commission of NEW Water.
