

About Andrea Kennedy

Andrea has over 25 years' experience in professional services, first as a commercial litigation lawyer in London and later as a business development consultant, executive coach and facilitator. Most recently she has been working with individuals at all levels of seniority, who face challenges at work due to changes in their roles, redundancy or retirement. She also helps those who want to leave their job and start a new career altogether, or achieve a better work/life balance.

She is passionate about helping people achieve their full potential and finding fulfilment in both their professional and personal lives. Her style is engaging, energetic and open while being challenging and realistic.

Andrea has a strong international background. An American who has lived in the UK for over 30 years, she has worked in the US, Europe and the Far East and moves easily between cultures. She is currently working on improving her Russian (her first degree) and learning French.

Examples of Andrea's work

- Facilitating leadership skills training for a number of leading international business schools' Executive Education Programs
- Designing and facilitating training on equality and diversity, including banter and behaviour in the workplace
- Designing and facilitating personal leadership workshops for an international strategic consultancy firm
- Designing and facilitating a course on fair recruitment and dealing with unconscious bias
- Coaching professionals from as far afield as China, Europe, the United States and the Caribbean on personal business development, presentation skills, negotiation skills, networking and building resilience.
- Designing and presenting sessions as a member of the Talent and Leadership Working Group at the International Bar Association annual conferences over the past 5 years in Dubai, Dublin, Rome, Washington D.C. and Vienna.

Accreditations and Memberships

- Accredited Executive Coach and Leadership Mentor (Management Futures: accredited by European Mentoring and Coaching Council) Level 7 Diploma
- The Science of Happiness at Work™
- Member of the California Bar
- Member of the International Bar Association (IBA)
- Vice-chair of the Talent and Leadership Working Group, part of the Law Firm Management Committee of the IBA