

About Dr Jummy Okoya

Jummy is a highly accomplished coach and leadership and organisation development consultant with more than 2 decades' experience. She is a highly experienced educator, trainer and researcher within the public and private sectors with experience of commissioning new and revalidating programmes.

Jummy is an expert in delivering workplace resilience and wellbeing programmes and using positive psychology intervention tools to enable employees to move from functioning to flourishing. She improves her clients' organisational performance through developing high performing teams, developing coaching and mentoring initiatives and training institutional career champions.

She is the project lead for CMI race 2020, associate Programme Leader for MSc Human Resource Management and Chair of the Women's Network at the University of East London. She is a board member of CMI women, regional lead for Equality, Diversity, Inclusion and Belonging (EDIB) for Chartered Institute of Personnel Development and a panel member for Global D&I initiative. Jummy is a branch executive with the Chartered Institute for Personnel Development (CIPD) and a member of HR Leaders network, a special advisory group which decides CIPD's strategic direction. She is a qualified positive psychology coach who uniquely integrates positive psychology interventions with HR tools to achieve a flourishing organisation and thriving employees.

Jummy's person-centred professional approach enables her to connect with clients at individual, team and organisational level in order to co-create solutions that really work for her clients. She has experience of working in the Third Sector, Executive Education, Aerospace and Professional bodies.

Examples of Jummy's work:

- MBA Director – University of East London (2013-18)
- Programme Lead – Imperial College Business School (2014 – Present)
- HR Consultant – Winmark Global
- Cohort Director – NHS Leadership Academy (2014 – 2015)

Accreditations

- Organisational performance & employee wellbeing (PhD)
- Positive Psychology & Applied Coaching Psychology (MSc)
- Business Information Systems (MSc)
- Branch Executive CIPD & Member HR Leaders Network
- Workplace Resilience & Wellbeing Psychometric Tool (Senior Practitioner)
- Senior Fellow of Higher Education Academy
- Fellow, Royal Society of Art
- Fellow, Chartered Management Institute
- Institute of Personnel Development (Chartered Academic Member)