

About Louise Walsh

Louise has an impressive background as an acclaimed principal opera soloist with 15 years' performance experience, combined with 7 years' experience as a business facilitator and coach. She has the flexibility to adapt to, connect with and work effectively with everyone at every level.

Louise performed as one of the most accomplished solo artists working in Europe including singing Christine in The Phantom of the Opera at her Majesty's Theatre in London's West End, as well as being a guest soloist at The Royal Albert Hall, The English National Opera and The Royal Opera House, Covent Garden.

This training, experience and expertise allows her to quickly diagnose vocal, physical, mind set and energy issues for executives in the areas of Vocal Power, Performance and Presence. Louise gives individuals clear, actionable solutions for learning and development in these key areas. She also holds a degree in Chemistry.

Examples of Louise's work

- Facilitated Presentation Skills workshops for Executive MBA, Masters in Finance, Emerging Leaders Programme, Senior Executive Programme and Accelerated Development Programme students at a leading international business school
- Delivered Personal Impact, Influencing with Impact and Executive Presence workshops globally for several recognized international business schools and corporate businesses in the UK and Europe
- Works as a one-to-one Performance Impact coach for senior executives looking to improve their overall presence, by using their bodies and voices to greatest effect, as tools of influence and persuasion

What our clients say about Louise

"Incredibly knowledgeable and engaging facilitator. Excellent workshop-most useful thing on course so far"
Participant, internationally recognized UK based business school

"Louise brings a combination of science, talent and knowledge to a subject." Participant, internationally recognized UK based business school

"Great session - very useful for business. Great instructor- knows the subject really well. Extremely energetic-to keep the session alive." Participant, internationally recognized UK based business school

"Very useful, great techniques for practicing straight away. A very engaging and interactive session. And a fantastic voice." Participant, multinational consumer goods company