iOpener Executive Coaching

In our experience, 1:1 executive coaching is the fastest way to create sustainable individual change, build creativity and resilience; and to shift leaders and their teams to the next level. CEOs, MDs, Board Directors etc. come to us for many reasons, such as needing to;

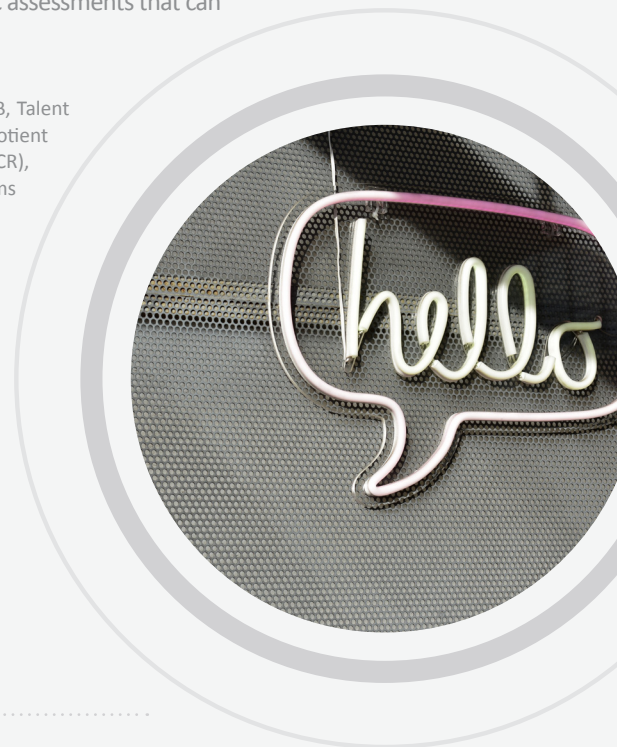

- Deliver exceptional results under pressure
- Deal with stress by developing resilience not burn-out
- Respond fast to feedback
- Keep centered during volatile and complex times
- Find an objective sounding board

Coaching Package: £2,000 + VAT

- Choose your preferred iOpener coach following a couple of chemistry calls
- Attend 6 x 1 hour coaching sessions over the course of 3 months
- Sign up for online i360 before first session

iOpener Team Coaching

Sometimes it is the whole team that can benefit from coaching, not just the leader. And, it is the optimal way to keep your team aligned whilst working virtually. To discuss what a bespoke design might look like for you and your team, please contact info@iopener.com
