

KIND

Dalton Lee, Abby Malloy, Sam Hart

You change my valleys into victories
You're turning shadows into light
I won't doubt that you are good to me
Because Your heart is kind
Your heart is

Kind, Yeah
Your heart is kind, Yeah
All the time, Yeah
Your heart is
Your heart is kind

You turn my pain into a purpose
You're resurrecting dead to life
Even when it hurts you're workin'
Because your heart is kind
Your heart is

Kind, Yeah
Your heart is kind, Yeah
All the time, Yeah
Your heart is
Your heart is kind

When the race I've run is finished
Waiting with arms opened wide
And I know every burden will be lifted
Because your heart is
Your heart is

Kind, Yeah
Your heart is kind, Yeah
All the time, Yeah
Your heart is
Your heart is kind
Your heart is kind
