

PROFILE

DR. AJAI SAHNI

Dr. Ajai Sahni is the Executive Director of the INSTITUTE FOR CONFLICT MANAGEMENT, the SOUTH ASIA TERRORISM PORTAL & KHALISTAN EXTREMISM MONITOR; Publisher & Editor, SOUTH ASIA INTELLIGENCE REVIEW, FAULTLINES: KPS GILL JOURNAL OF CONFLICT & RESOLUTION, and SECOND SIGHT; and Project Director, IMPACT. He served as a Member of the (Madhukar Gupta) Committee on the Restructuring of the Ministry of Home Affairs and is presently a Member of the Police Modernisation and Strengthening Committee, Uttar Pradesh. He has researched and written extensively on issues relating to conflict, politics and development in South Asia, and has participated in advisory projects undertaken for various National or State Governments. He jointly edited (with K.P.S. Gill) Terror & Containment: Perspectives on India's Internal Security; The Global Threat of Terror: Ideological, Material and Political Linkages; and separately, The Fragility of Order: Essays in Honour of K.P.S. Gill. He has lectured at numerous professional institutions and appears frequently as an expert on terrorism and insurgency in the electronic and print media in India and internationally.