

Maj Gen Deepak Mehta

Maj Gen DK Mehta was commissioned into The RAJPUTANA RIFLES in March 1972. He is the third Generation Officer in the Indian Army. He was the Chief of Staff of the Desert Corps. He has seen active operations in J& K along the Line of Control , with tenures in Arunachal Pradesh. He has a chequered career of 37 years in uniform encompassing command, staff and instructional appointments. In command he commanded an Infantry Battalion in J& K during the hight of insurgency phase and was injured. He commanded a Infantry Brigade during Op PARKRAM and a Mountain Division. He has been on staff appointments in all Hq from Battalion to Army Hq. He raised the first Information Warfare Cell in the Army as a pilot project. He has had instructional appointments in the premier training establishment of the Army War College and the Indian Military Academy.