

Capt. Jasdeep Loney

Have been in the Marine Industry for the last 39 years, with an expertise in Oil Transportation.

Started as an apprentice on a Merchant Ship in 1981 and after working for 15 years at various levels on board ships, I got my command in 1996.

I hanged my sea boots in the year 2000 and for the last 20 years, have led and executed various projects concerning Health, Security and Safety at Global level in the International Marine Industry.

Since 2011, I am the Global Vice President Technical 'HSSE' (Health, Safety, Security and Environment) of TORM A/S in Denmark, which is one of the largest product tanker shipping companies in the world.

Returned to India in 2016 and was appointed as Head of TORM INDIA - in addition to the Global Vice president Technical HSSE of TORM A/S.

TORM was founded in 1889 and has sailed the seas for 131 years, with activities spread over Worldwide. This group is listed on NASDAQ Copenhagen and on NASDAQ in New York.

TORM's offices are located in Copenhagen, Houston, London, Manila, Cebu, New Delhi, Mumbai and Singapore, which require my frequent travels world over. This group employs approximately 4000 (Four Thousands) Seafarers and Shore staff.
