

KEITH ELLIOTT

Keith Elliott is the CEO of Reed Research a Professional Investigation firm in Toronto, Canada. With an Honours Degree in Law & Security Administration and Private Investigations, Keith also is the head of Reed's Cyber Intelligence Unit.

Keith is an internationally recognized Investigator and public speaker. He frequently provides training and his expertise at schools to train and protect children, while educating parents about the dangers of the cyber world, password safety and social media.

His firm assists corporations and individuals, while working with law enforcement to stop cyber bullying, harassment and child exploitation to ensure children remain safe digitally and personally.

As a seasoned Professional Investigator with over 29 years of experience, Mr. Elliott has practical involvement in identifying risk and investigating crimes. He has presented evidence and testified in precedent setting cases in various courts across Ontario and Canada.

Keith.Elliott@ReedResearch.com - Ext 225