

Vishnu Sultania

Vishnu Sultania is a Chartered Accountant and a Company Secretary and has almost three decades of experience working with reputed multinationals having sizeable operation. He started his career in Eastern Europe as Financial Controller and grown as Board member overseeing multi country operations.

He is pioneer in building companies and has acquired a number of companies in India and Overseas. He has raised funds from international market and has laid the strategic and financial functions of listed company.

He was associated with Agio of Singapore, Rostel of UK, Telstra of Australia, Verint of USA, and OCS Group of UK, BCL and Tenon Group at strategic leadership position.

Most recently has been awarded to be amongst the best 100 CFO of India for his exceptional calibre and contribution in the field of finance.

He has founded AKMV Consultants Private Limited and helping emerging companies to build strategy and create JVs in the field of M&A and fund raise. AKMV in its existence of about 1 year has created JVs with the likes of Morgan Stanley and SIS.

Mr. Sultania is a research professional writes articles and blogs on contemporary issues. He is a contributor to security industry by way of raising appropriate issues to regulator and captains of industries.

He takes keen interest in academics and provides guidance to UPSC candidates and contributes at policy level on security matters.