

Paul Starrett

Paul Starrett, EnCE, CFE, is an attorney and private investigator specializing in privacy and data-protection technology. His consulting firm specializes in automated integration, artificial intelligence and cybersecurity-risk consulting. His 25-year career includes roles as general counsel, chief risk officer and as an information-security software engineer. Paul holds a Master's degree in Predictive Analytics from Northwestern University and a Master of Laws (LL.M.) in Taxation from Golden Gate University.