

Fast & Affordable Insurance for Your Business

Spending time answering question after question about your business just to obtain the insurance you need is simply a waste of time. That's why we've partnered with Coterie Insurance to make this process seamless and stress free.

Coterie Insurance offers simple and affordable small business insurance so you can get back to business.

Why We Trust Coterie Insurance:

Whether you're a home-based business owner, run a micro small business, work as a contractor, own a startup, or fall into the many other types of small businesses, you have probably experienced first-hand the frustration of trying to find affordable coverage without having to jump through hoops.

Coterie Insurance was built from the ground up to empower small businesses and insurance agents with:

- Streamlined insurance quotes — no lengthy, time-consuming application and underwriting process
- Flexible coverage options — built for the small businesses of today
- Affordable and competitive pricing
- Online access and management of your policy documents and certificate of insurance
- The ability to quickly and easily make changes to your policy
- Convenient payment methods and options
- Coverage backed by A-rated (excellent) licensed insurers and reinsurers
- Access to world-class customer support
- Professional claims handling — when the unexpected occurs, Coterie Insurance is there to make it right

You Have Better Things to Think About Than Insurance

Through our partnership with Coterie Insurance, invest your time where it matters most — running your business — and enjoy the peace of mind that your hard work is protected by an insurance policy that meets your needs.
